ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The defendant shall be evaluated to determine whether there is a need for participation in a drug treatment program. The defendant shall participate in any drug treatment program, if recommended by the U.S. Probation Office and approved by the Court and shall abide by the rules of any such program until satisfactorily discharged.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant shall pay to the United States a fine of $2,000.00. The Court finds that the defendant lacks the ability to pay a fine within the guideline range. The Court will waive the interest requirement for this case.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total special assessment of $2,000.00.

The fine and special assessment are due immediately. It is recommended that the defendant participate in the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program and provide a minimum payment of $25.00 per quarter towards the fine and special assessment. In the event the fine and special assessment are not paid prior to the commencement of supervision, the defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $100.00, to commence 30 days after release from confinement.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the fine remains unpaid.

The defendant shall obtain and maintain full-time employment while on supervised release.
